

Program Learning Outcomes Graduate Translation Certificate

Students graduating from the Translation Certificate Program will demonstrate:

Christian Service and Ethics

TR.C.1 Students will demonstrate Christ-like characteristics and attitudes in all translating and interpreting interactions, including honesty, respect, and a willingness to serve others (ULO 1).

TR.C.2 Students will identify key concepts in translation/interpreting codes of ethics and formulate personal standards for resolving ethical dilemmas encountered during translation/interpreting (ULO 1, 3).

Professional Skills

TR.C.3 Students will translate a variety of texts, incorporating strategies, tools, and theories across multiple situations, including correctly assessing register, purpose, and audience (ULO 2, 3, 4).

TR.C.4 Students will be able communicate at a professional level, through presentation of written analysis and critiques, interpretation of authentic source texts, and translations or interpretations of such texts (ULO 2, 3, 4).
