

HARDING

FINANCIAL CERTIFICATION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Instructions for applicant: This form must be completed in its entirety and submitted along with all your other application materials. Your application for undergraduate admission will not be considered complete until this form is received.

International students who desire admission to a degree program at Harding University must obtain a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) to enter and/or remain in the U.S. with an F-1 visa. This requirement applies to international students coming from abroad and international students transferring from another U.S. institution. For Harding to issue a form I-20, you must submit the following:

1. This completed form, including the signatures of both you (the applicant) and your financial sponsor. This form will not be considered complete without the original signature of your family or individual sponsor.
2. You are required to certify that you have sufficient funds available for your academic and living expenses. Please provide original bank statement(s) on bank letterhead from both you or your financial sponsor, issued no earlier than one year from the date you intend to begin your studies. Account balance(s) must be shown in an amount greater than or equal to $26,279 (estimate of expenses for 2017-18 school year in U.S. dollars). Faxes, emails, and photocopies are not acceptable. Note: Bank statements must be for a checking, savings or time deposit account. Brokerage, stock or equities funds, real estate and/or any non-liquid assets may not be included.
3. Return this form along with all additional financial documentation to:

Employment prohibitions: In computing your expenses, you should keep in mind that students holding Student (F) visa cannot be authorized to work off campus to support themselves. Students on F-1 visas may work on campus part time but should not expect to earn a significant portion of their funds this way. Work is limited to a maximum of 20 hours per week. Therefore, students can earn spending money, but the earnings are not enough to support their educational expenses.
