HOLY HOLY HOLY
Living in the Presence of God

September 25-28, 2016
Dear friends,

Welcome to Harding’s 93rd annual Bible Lectureship! Lectureship is a tradition that is as old as Harding University. Since our very first fall as a four-year college, students and friends of Harding have gathered from across the country and around the world for this special occasion. Lectureship has always been part-homecoming, part-revival, part-intensive Bible study, and part-celebration of the University itself. You might say that Lectureship is one of Harding’s gifts to the church and that your presence at Lectureship is a gift from you to Harding. So, welcome and thanks for coming!

Since joining us in 2013 to serve as Harding’s vice president for church relations, Dan Williams has taken Lectureship to new heights. Each year the crowds are larger, and the program is packed with more resources and opportunities than ever before. Working year-round with an excellent team of church leaders from both on and off campus, Dr. Williams continues to find ways to address the needs and requests of our Lecture-ship guests. For 28 years, he preached for the College Avenue Church of Christ in El Dorado, Arkansas. Consequently, he approaches Lectureship with the heart and vision of someone who has spent his life “in the trenches” of congregational ministry. I think you will see evidence of that on every page of the Lectureship program.

Again, welcome to campus! We are so glad you came, and we pray that you have an inspiring, uplifting, refreshing and renewing experience at Lectureship this year.

Bruce D. McLarty
President

The seraphs were calling to one another:
“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory.” ISAIAH 6:3

Dear guests,

When Isaiah caught a glimpse of the holiness of Almighty God, it changed his whole life. It is our prayer that you will leave this year’s Lectureship with a renewed sense of God’s presence and a transformed spirit from having been reminded of his glory!

We have assembled a lineup of dynamic speakers for this year’s program. My thanks to them for their willingness to share the fruits of their scholarship.

In addition, the Lectureship Committee spent many months in careful preparation. I am indebted to Scott Adair, Tom Alexander, Andrew Baker, Nathan Guy, Dale Manor, Karl McLarty, Sherry Pollard, Bill Richardson, Clay Smith, Daniel Stockstill, Devin Swindle, Phil Thompson, Anessa Westbrook and Noel Whitlock for their vital contributions. I am especially grateful to Teresa Castleman, our event coordina-tor, for her creative suggestions and her invaluable work in organizing the many moving parts that make up this annual event.

Finally, our deepest appreciation goes to you, our Lectureship guests, for your support and encouragement, your active participation in this program, and above all, for your work in the kingdom.

Lectureship Director

RISE AND SHINE!

“Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs.” PSALM 100

Our goal for this Lectureship is to explore and experience what it means to live in the presence of an awe-some and holy God. There is no better way to come into our Father’s presence than with the reverent rejoic-ing of worship. That’s why we have built into the schedule multiple opportunities to join our hearts and voices with fellow Christians in singing praises to the Lord.

In addition, the format of this year’s schedule reflects two significant changes. First, we have added a feature called Morning Praise. Each day from 8:30-8:55 a.m., Rick Castleman and Caleb Dillinger will lead an uplift-ing worship assembly in the Administration Auditorium.

Second, following the Morning Praise session, we will enjoy our first keynote address of the day at 9 a.m. in the same auditorium. At 9:45 a.m. we will dismiss for our regularly scheduled class presentations in the Mc-Inteer Bible and World Missions Building.

Adding the Morning Praise enables us to start the day off on a holy, happy note. Moving the keynote address to 9 a.m. allows our speakers to set the tone for the day and shortens our walk to lunch after the 11 a.m. classes.

Please make a note of these changes in our Lectureship format and plan to join your brothers and sisters from around the nation each morning as together we “worship the Lord with gladness and come before Him with joyful songs!”

Dr. Dan Williams
Lectureship Director

Allen Diles, McInteer 225
The church in the third century was faced with the dilemma of what to do with those who had denied the faith in the face of persecution but who, once the persecution passed, wished to be restored to the fellowship. We examine Cyprian and the Novatian schism to learn how the early church resolved this problem.

3 p.m. MONDAY CLASSES
From Muslim to Christian, part 1: I Am an Arab, and I Am a Christian
Wissam Al-Aethawi, Heritage Auditorium
Christian philosophers have often identified the three transcendentals as truth, goodness and beauty. They also said we usually respond to these in the exact opposite order. Interestingly enough, this is how I converted out of my family’s faith of Islam, through atheism, into Christ.

Contagious Holiness, part 3: Is Cleanliness Next to Godliness? Bizarre Purity Laws and Their Relevance for Christian Holiness
Kevin Youngblood, Cone Chapel
Holiness in the Pentateuch often takes on bizarre manifestations that seem completely irrelevant to our contemporary lives. But what if we shared the symbolic world of ancient Israel? Allen Diles, McInteer 225
On Sept. 1, 1816, Alexander Campbell preached the sermon about which he wondered “that but for the persecution begun on the alleged heresy of this sermon, whether the present reformation had ever been advocated by me.” We examine the content, historical context and influence of this significant sermon.
Shepherding, part 3: How You Can Practice Simple Mentoring for Significant Results

Howard Wright, McInteer 230
This presentation will look at various ways that we as Christians have forgotten how to practice the very presence of God scripturally. Significant Others: Understanding Our Newest Non-Christian Neighbors — Islam: The Last Word on Submission?
Monte Cox, Heritage Auditorium
Immigration has brought more adherents of non-Christian religions to our neighborhoods than ever before. Many of us feel ill-equipped to engage them in conversation about spiritual matters. The purpose of these sessions is to introduce us to the basics of Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism, highlighting both points of contact and the uniqueness of Christ.

A Review of the New Calvinism: The Resurgence of Calvinism
Keith Stanglin, McInteer 150
Calvinism has been on the rise among evangelical churches for several years now, and it is infiltrating beyond its typical borders. What is Calvinism, and why is it attractive to so many? What positive things can we learn from it, and what are its negative aspects?

Holiness and Humility: What It Means to Be God's Own People
Sheila Vamplin, McInteer 233
In the context of 1 Peter 2, this class will examine the crucial part humility plays in a life of holiness. Because of God's holiness, being "chosen" and "royal" mean different things in the world's (un)reality compared to God's reality.

Church Discipline: Helping God's People Toward Holiness, part 1 — A Matter of Repentance
Tommy South, McInteer 125
Scripture offers ample guidance on church discipline, yet it continues to be neglected in practice. This presentation will ask why this is so, and what can we do about it?
Holiness in the Prophets: “The Holy Mountain,” part 1 — The Divine Warrior and Divine Might
Dan Oden, McInteer 145
The prophets of Israel and Judah speak of the “Holy Mountain” and the “Lord’s mountain.” In some texts, the mountain is the dwelling of the divine warrior who emerges to fight on behalf of God’s people — but at other times the divine warrior fights against God’s people. Under what conditions can we claim that God is “on our side”? What are the implications of the divine warrior not being on any side?

Parenting Foster Children, part 1
Crystal Whittington, McInteer 225
In these sessions, Dr. Crystal Whittington will share from her experience in parenting and adopting from within the foster system.

When Life Overwhelms Me, part 1
John Dobbs, McInteer 229
Everyone faces times when the events of life and ministry are crushing. When feeling overwhelmed, we look to God for help, peace and favor. These three sessions will focus on three Psalms and seek to find help when the waters of life would have engulfed us if it had not been for the Lord.

Children’s Ministry: Creative Ideas Any Church Can Use, part 1
Alan Underwood, McInteer 353

Missions: Holiness, a Theology for Missions
Shawn Daggett, McInteer 234

Finding God in Nazareth: Building the Kingdom in Rural America, part 1
Jim Weaver, McInteer 253
America’s heartland is having a coronary. Widely overlooked but wide-open, rural America is in need of the gospel like never before. Discover the needs and unprecedented opportunities for building the kingdom in rural America.

Pure Heart Vision: Jesus’ Farewell Speech in Action — How Redemptive Love Works
Randy Willingham, Liberty Room
Randy Willingham provides practical applications that build upon the presentations by Jim Bury and Peter Rice. The focus is to give actionable insight to participants that heighten their sensitivity to living in the presence of God.

A Review of the New Calvinism: Unconditional Election, Free Will and Evil
Keith Stanglin, McInteer 150
Calvinism teaches that God chooses certain people for salvation with no regard for their faith or willingness to be saved. The remainder he leaves to be condemned in their sin. What are the implications of such a view for human freedom, divine grace, and God’s responsibility for evil?

Bearing Holy Fruit: Practical Resources for Spiritual Growth
Sheila Vamplin, McInteer 233
2 Peter 1:3-11 speaks of our becoming partakers of the divine nature, meaning much more than simply being “cleansed from old sins.” This session will offer resources for growing, and helping others grow, in the “things that pertain to life and godliness.”

Church Discipline: Helping God’s People Toward Holiness, part 2 — God’s Gift for a Healthier, Holier Church
Tommy South, McInteer 125
Church discipline isn’t a burden but rather an expression of God’s love for his people and our love for one another. Practicing it will help the church be more of what God desires us to be.

Dan Oden, McInteer 145
The prophets of Israel and Judah speak of the “Holy Mountain” and the “Lord’s mountain.” Often, in prophetic oracles this mountain is depicted in cosmological terms as Eden, whose creator and inhabitant is God. What does it mean if not only the heavens, but the earth was created for God’s holy presence?

Tommy Bush, moderator, McInteer 125

Interview with Tom Carr from African Christian Hospitals

3 p.m.  TUESDAY CLASSES

From Muslim to Christian, part 2: Is Wissam Al-Aethawi, Heritage Auditorium
The Muslim scripture, the Quran, talks about a man by the name Isa, whom Muslims identify as Jesus. When asked, Muslims say that they believe in him. In fact, the belief in Isa is a requisite in the Islamic faith. But who is this Isa? Is he the same as Jesus? If Muslims believe, as they claim, in him, then why does it look like we have two distinct faiths? And do Muslims expect the same promise that comes out of faith in Isa as the one in John 3:16?

Significant Others: Understanding Our Newest Non-Christian Neighbors —
Buddhism: Suffering for Nothing?
Monte Cox, McInteer 225

A Review of the New Calvinism: Assurance of Salvation
Keith Stanglin, McInteer 150
Calvinism teaches that the elect can never fall from God’s grace and that assurance of one’s own salvation is an integral part of saving faith itself. But what are the implications of this view for the Christian life of sanctification, and on what basis can one be assured?

Wholly Holy: The Single Life With God
Susan Shirel, McInteer 233
We are called to be holy as God is holy, regardless of our circumstances. It can be challenging to pursue holiness if the life we live does not match our expectations, hopes or dreams. By reframing our thinking to align with God’s and trusting in his faithfulness, it is possible to live a life that is wholly holy no matter the situation.

HOLY  Church Discipline: Helping God’s People Toward Holiness, part 3 — Starting Down a Road We Fear
Tommy South, McInteer 125
Before we begin to discipline, there must be an atmosphere of genuine love and fellowship, along with a deep trust in the goodness and power of God.

HOLY  Holiness in the Prophets: “The Holy Mount-tain,” part 3 — The Community of God and Divine Habitation
Dan Oden, McInteer 145
The prophets of Israel and Judah speak of the “Holy Mountain” and the “Lord’s mountain.”
Looking to the future, the prophets proclaim a New Zion in which God and man will dwell together. Are we ready to live in God’s ZIP code?

When Life Overwhelms Me, part 3
John Dobbs, McInteer 229

Reconnecting, not Disconnecting: Addressing the Impact of Social Media and Cyber-Bullying on Depression and Suicide
Marc Fager and Sam Jeffrey, McInteer 230
In this class, we will discuss the social and cyber threats to the family, how to counter them, overcoming self-doubt as a parent, and building a community of knowledge within the community of faith.

The Most Holy Place: Foreshadowing Christ
Through Sacred Space (Exodus 40:16-38)
Jesse Robertson, McInteer 353
According to Hebrews 8:5, the Tabernacle was “a copy and a shadow of the heavenly things.”
What does this holy structure, along with its furnishings and ceremonies, teach us about God’s great plan?

Missions: Dealing With Spiritual Struggles
in Missions
Ken Graves, McInteer 234

Reviving Rural Churches, part 3
Garry Neal, McInteer 253
This session will discuss remembering the rural areas and the treasures they hold and developing a house-to-house, heart-to-heart ministry in revitalizing a rural congregation.

The Habits of Holiness, part 1: Walking the Incarnational Path With Jesus

Are our physical bodies impediments or vehicles to the life of holiness? What might an embodied, sacramental spirituality look like?

Church Planting and Evangelism in America
Marvin Crowson, McInteer 253
If you think that church planting has nothing to do with you since you’re not a preacher or evangelist, if you feel you lack the resources to start, or if you believe there are enough churches sitting empty and unused, you might wonder why plant another. Learn how Christ and his disciples did something differently.

Archaeology: The Holy City — Jerusalem

At Harding University, we appreciate your ministry! The Office of Church Relations and College of Bible and Ministry seek to serve the servants of God by providing resources that will help you and your church. Here are some of the resources we offer:

SPEAKER’S BUREAU: Looking for a speaker for some special event in your church? You will find a list of available presenters on our website.

PREACHER STUFF: Church leaders may subscribe to this free service, which provides daily email postings of useful ministry resources.

ABUNDANT LIVING: This ministry to equip and encourage older Christians offers a quarterly magazine, senior’s ministry training conferences, GrandCamp for grandparents and their grandchildren, and a yearly retreat at Branson, Missouri. We can bring a mini-retreat to your church!

THE KERUSSO EXPERIENCE: This annual summer camp is for young men in grades 9-12 who are interested in preaching.

CHURCH JOBS FORUM: Need to fill a ministry position? Post it on our website!
