Sherry Pogue 2024 Outstanding Alumna

The first woman in her family to attend college, Sherry Pogue graduated from Northeastern State University in Talequah, Oklahoma, with a degree in elementary education. She later earned master’s degrees in educational leadership and professional counseling at Harding. She taught in Claremore, Oklahoma; Wichita, Kansas; and Little Rock, Arkansas; and served as principal at Central Arkansas Christian. She and her husband, Alan, established Pogue Counseling and Associates, a family counseling practice in North Little Rock, Arkansas, and also taught counseling courses at John Brown University.

In 2016, she established Restored and Renewed Ministry, a nonprofit organization designed to provide a place of respite and private counseling services for missionaries in France. In June 2019, the Pogues closed their practice and moved to France. Unfortunately, Alan died suddenly just five months later. Sherry remained throughout the COVID-19 pandemic continuing to counsel missionaries and providing fellowship once the borders reopened. After Russia invaded Ukraine in 2022, Sherry leveraged her contacts in churches across Europe to help evacuate women and children seeking safety in the West.
