Welcome!

This speaker series aims to foster meaningful conversations, spark curiosity and provide valuable career guidance to our students. From industry innovators to award-winning artists, our alumni have demonstrated the power of a Christian liberal arts education to shape critical thinkers, problem solvers and creative visionaries.

Paul Chandler 2024 Outstanding Alumnus

Paul Chandler graduated in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and earned a Master of Science in Education in 2005. A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, he has more than two decades of experience at the University of Florida where he is currently the director of strength and conditioning. Under his leadership, the university's teams have achieved remarkable success including 2014 and 2015 softball national championships, the 2017 baseball national championship and the 2006 football national championship as well as 57 NFL draft picks and the development of notable players including Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow. Committed to a culture of championship experience with integrity, Chandler also played a key role in securing $2.5 million for the University Athletic Association. He and his wife, former Bison Volleyball All-American Veronica Piech, live in Gainesville, Florida, with their two children.
